This week at St. Bernard's

This week we welcomed our new children in Reception who will be starting with us in September. The visits were very successful and we are looking forward to all the children and their families joining our school family.

Year 6 had the opportunity to visit their High School and they enjoyed getting ready for their next chapter and all our children in school met their Teacher and other staff in their class for next year

Reception have been practising algorithms using jam!

Year 1 have been learning how to use the suffix 'ed' and created their own sandwiches to sell at the supermarket.

In Year 2 this week we have made predictions about our new book The Magic Finger and explored similes to describe character feelings and actions. We have looked at activists in History - created a timeline of activists and learned about Rosa Parks in more detail.

In Science Year 3 have been busy outside learning about shadows and how they are made.

Year 4 have really enjoyed Computing this week. Our lesson covered some very important knowledge for living in a digital world including the digital age of consent, the upcoming social media ban for under 16s in the UK and what a URL is.

This week Year 5 have been studying the lasting impact of Mathematics in ancient Greece and how it is still used across the world today. They also have been working on their narrative writing in English using the picture book The Barnabus Project as their inspiration.

Year 6 are busy practising and preparing for their show – we can't wait to watch it next week!
